

That's kinda punny!

Try sharing these corny Dad jokes with someone to make them smile! (or groan...)

When does a joke become a dad joke?

When it becomes apparent!

What is a windmill's favorite kind of music?

They're just heavy metal fans.

Why did the inventor of the Ferris Wheel and the inventor of the Merry Go Round never meet?

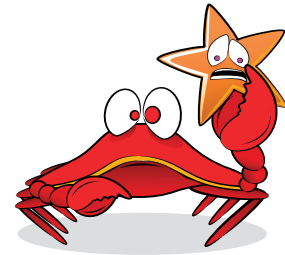

They moved in different circles.

What did the lunch box say to the refrigerator?

"Don't hate me because I'm a little cooler."

Why don't crabs volunteer?

Because they're shellfish.

What do a tick and the Eiffel Tower have in common?

They're both Paris sites.

What do you call fake spaghetti?

An impasta!

Which state has the most streets? Rhode Island.

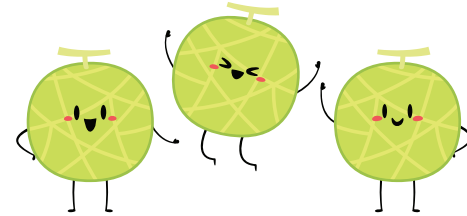

Where do ships go when they're sick?

To the boat dock.

Why do melons have weddings?

They can't elope!

PRIMETIME POST

April 2026

God-given talent brings back the oldies!

Greetings, precious Primetimers!

What a wonderful night of great food and fellowship we had at the April Primetimers' Dinner! The homemade chicken pot pie was delectable! (Thank you, Anita!) Pleasant conversations were shared around the tables, with folks laughing and encouraging one another, just happy to be together. And it was wonderful to have several first-timers in attendance!

What a precious gift God gave us in having Terry McHam and Levi Summey playing keyboards for our musical program. The treasured, tried-and-true songs they shared truly spoke to Primetimers' hearts. I venture to say most of us grew up singing those old hymns. They are so rich and remind us of God's unfailing love.

One of our Primetimers agreed that Terry and Levi were perfect song leaders with their great voices, personalities and love of music. Both were immersed in Christian music at a very young age. Terry's father was a pastor, and Levi, even as a preschooler, loved listening to Bill Gaither's music!

Terry, a most beautifully gifted pianist, shared a testimony that resonated with all of us. The hymn, "Great Is Thy Faithfulness," took on special meaning for her as she went through a very difficult time in her life. The lyrics carry the profound truth that, "All I have needed Thy hand hath provided," and is exactly what strengthened her to carry on.

We were astounded when Levi entertained us with four stylings of "When We All Get to Heaven," from country to classical to jazz! He's a gifted young man who gives all glory to God! Terry commented that it blessed her to see the next generation carrying this music forward. Can I hear a hearty "AMEN"?!

From the comments shared as folks were leaving that evening, how grateful we were to have experienced that special, musical evening - a memorable night indeed! We look forward to seeing you at the last gathering of this Primetimers' season on May 5, when we'll enjoy Steve Brogan, comedian and ventriloquist. Come for some more great fun and laughter!

Sing-cerely and with love, Pam

P.S. Would you please pray for Judy Reamer, our dinner guest from last Fall? The aggressive cancer has returned. Because of her age, Judy is declining chemo but working with her doctors.

She is keeping on keeping on, trusting God's sovereign plan for her. Thank you!

'Be quiet! Come look at a surprise on the front porch!' whispered my husband.

My mind focused back as I thought of the spring decorations I had arranged several weeks ago on the porch. On the front door I had securely attached a grapevine wreath with blue hydrangea flowers interwoven with a large white bow.

As I gingerly approached the steps on the porch, I noticed a well-formed bird nest in the center of the wreath, and to my amazement I saw four tiny blue eggs. We looked for the mother bird, but we must have frightened her as we lingered for a few moments. Hopefully, we may soon witness new life as the little birds break their shells. We retreated into the house, reminding ourselves to use the side door so that we would not disturb the little nest.

It reminded me of Psalm 36:7: "How precious is Your lovingkindness, O God!"

Therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of your wings."

Matthew 10:29-31 says: "Are not two sparrows sold for a copper coin? And not one of them falls to the ground apart from your Father's will. But all the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Do not fear therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows."

*Dear Friend,
Do you feel alone? Are you worried about your health, family or finances? Be assured that God loves you more than a sparrow and already knows your concerns. Turn your cares over to Jesus. Let Him give you comfort and peace. Praise Him for all He does for you daily. Rejoice in witnessing His beautiful creation. Serve Him with gladness and rest in His mercy and grace.*
