

APRIL 16

“WE CAN’T LIVE OFF OF YESTERDAY’S REVIVAL.”

---

READ

Exodus 33:14-15, Psalm 16:11

God told Moses, “My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest.” Moses told God, “If Your presence doesn’t go with us, I don’t want to go on.” When Paul and Silas were in prison at midnight, they lifted their voices and sang praises to God. When you are in the presence of the Lord, you have rest and peace in your soul and a song in your heart. In the presence of the Lord there is fullness of joy and pleasures forevermore. Adam and Eve hid themselves from the presence of God. Cain went out from the presence of the Lord and lived in the land of Nod, which means wandering or meandering. Once you leave the presence of the Lord, you start wandering with no purpose in life. You try one thing after another to satisfy yourself. When Peter was in the garden, he moved away from the Light. He stayed outside at a distance, in the shadows. Three times he denied that he knew Christ. When you are in the land of Nod, you revert back to your old ways. It is a miserable life. Every day we have to remind ourselves to start all over again. We can’t live off of yesterday’s revival. Draw nigh to God and He will draw nigh to you.

PRAY

God, I couldn’t take another step if I didn’t know You were with me. Thank You for a new day and the fresh mercies that come with it.

From April 2, 2006