

JULY 31

“HE IS IN THE PROCESS RIGHT NOW OF FINISHING WHAT HE STARTED IN YOU.”

READ

Psalm 138

Psalm 138 should give you great comfort. This Word you just read has been magnified high in the heavens. God will surely bring it to pass. He honors His Word. He loves His Word. His Word is powerful and creative. When you read it, believe it, and stand on it, you can be assured that this Word goes farther, higher, up to the very throne of God. Part of that Psalm says, “Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you will revive me.” Get ready! Revival’s coming. “You will stretch out your hand against the wrath of my enemies, and Your right hand will save me. The Lord will perfect that which concerns me.” He will work it out. He will take it to full term. He is the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. The Lord put you in this situation, and He will perfect that which concerns you. “Your mercy, oh Lord, endures forever. Do not forsake the works of Your hands.” That’s you — you’re the work of His hands. He will never forsake you. He will never walk away. He is in the process right now of finishing what He started in You. Hallelujah!

PRAY

Jesus, thank You for working in me every moment of my day. You are the Author and Finisher of my faith. Do Your work.

From “Fast ForWORD,” July 31, 2020