

FEBRUARY 24

“HE DOESN'T WANT YOU TO BE AFRAID OF ONE OR ONE MILLION.”

READ

Psalm 27:1-4, Psalm 37:1-8

“A whole army can encamp against me and I’m not afraid. My heart shall not fear, though war may rise against me, in this I will be confident.” Confident in what? Even in this war. Even in this mess. This divorce. This financial crisis. Even in this, I will be confident. I’m confident because I know my enemy is going to fall. No army can stand against me. No weapon formed against me can prosper. So let it get bad! I’m confident that He — my Commander in Chief, my Keeper, my Shepherd — is there. I’m walking through the valley of the shadow of death, but I’m not afraid of evil because God is with me. He’s never failed me. He’s never forsaken me. He’s never disappointed me. He’s never let me down. Can you take your eyes off the army and let them gaze upon Him? While you’re looking at Him, all your problems are falling at your feet.

PRAY

You are the light in my darkness the strength in my weakness. I will rest in You and not fear.
